Year 11 and Year 12 Course Overview

The Children, Family and the Community General course focuses on factors that influence human development and the wellbeing of individuals, families and communities. Students will engage in shared research, examine goal setting, self-management, decision making, communication and cooperation skills when creating products, services or systems that will assist individuals, families and communities to achieve their needs and wants.

Year 11 Course Structure

Unit 1 – Building on relationships

In this unit, students investigate the principles of development and how these relate to the domains and theories of development. Students examine and evaluate the features of products, services and systems for individuals and families. They examine the diverse and dynamic nature of families in Australia. They recognise and acknowledge cultural diversity, and inequity and injustice issues. Students develop effective self-management and interpersonal skills to recognise and enhance personal relationships, enabling them to take active roles in society.

Unit 2 – My place in the world

In this unit, students examine the effect on an individual's development and wellbeing in a society characterised by rapid change. They explore contemporary Australian issues or trends relating to families and communities at the state and national level, and are introduced to a range of advocacy types. Students examine developmental theories and their influence on cognitive development. Students use effective self-management and interpersonal skills when assessing or developing products, processes, services, systems or environments.
